Summer 2015 - Quarterly Newsletter

Welcome to the Summer Newsletter. There are a number of important items that I wish to bring to your attention which include social events and the proposed change in the National and Branch Rules.

Firstly, I would like to thank the Social Committee - Keith Mates (Chair), Caroline Place (Secretary), Tony Place, Ray Woolston, Jo Townsend (Treasurer) and Jan Steedman for all the hard work and effort they put in to arranging events for Members whether it's excursions, get togethers or lunches. The Spring lunch and river trip were two more successful and enjoyable events. Unfortunately, the planned trip to Rye and Jempsons was cancelled by the coach company. Events and excursions for the remainder of the year are set out in more detail below. They include the 'nosh & natter nite', Buckingham Palace, Canal trip on the Wey & Arun canal, day trip to Brugge, Christmas Lunch and a fashion show by Edinburgh Woollens. I am delighted to say that the support for our events is increasing and on occasions have been a sell out. The Brugge trip is one example of a sell out but luckily Ray Woolston has managed to secure a further 10 seats.

The Social Committee are asking Members to pay for the outings at the time of booking. This is so cheques can be cleared in ample time for the Social Treasurer to have sufficient funds to settle with the coach companies. Cheques for all outings, unless otherwise stated, are to be made payable to Eastbourne NARPO. At the present time the Social Committee Bank Account does not have internet banking facilities.

A reminder to Members that at the National Conference, which is to be held on Friday 4 September 2015, the National Executive Committee will be presenting a motion to change our present National Rules. If these rules are agreed by delegates, each Branch will need to revise their own rules. The new classification of Membership will create the biggest problem at Branch level. Wives/spouses/partners will no longer be classed as members unless they pay a precept subscription to national funds which is calculated at 40% of the full subscription currently approximately £7 pa. Our Chairman has been informed by Clint Elliott, the National Chief Executive Officer, that if these rules are accepted at Conference it is unlikely that they will become effective until the 1 January 2016 which will give branches a little breathing space. We can only change our rules at the AGM in April 2016. The Committee are looking at the possibility of changing the Half Yearly General Meeting of 22 September 2015 to an Extra Ordinary General Meeting to discuss and decide on the Branch's new rules. I will keep you all informed.

For those of you who retired between 2001 and 2006 please visit narpo.org.uk regarding the decision on the 'Commutation Factors'. For those of you not on the internet I understand that there will be an update in the next issue of NARPO News.

New Members

I would like to welcome Brian and Barbara Rapson to our Branch. Brian served in Sussex. I hope we will meet them at our future social events.

Our thoughts go out to all the families.

Would you know how to claim your Widow/ers Sussex Police Pension?

Whilst on the subject of bereavements, I was concerned about members who, at the time of losing a beloved one, had no idea how to sort out their Police Widow/er's Pension. I have been in touch with Sussex Police Pensions who inform me that it is advisable that the Widow/er or her/his representative (or person dealing with the estate) contact them as soon as possible to prevent the possibility of an over payment which would need to be recovered. Sussex Police Pensions require details of when the officer died and a contact address for the Widow/er (or person dealing with the estate). Sussex Police Pensions will write to the Widow/er (or person dealing with the estate) asking for the death certificate. If there is a Widow/er, Sussex Police Pensions will also send a dependants pension application and ask for his/her birth certificate and the marriage certificate (all certificates need to be originals). Once Sussex Police Pensions received the certificate, if there is no widow/er, details of final pay at death and tax details will be sent to the person dealing with the estate also detailing whether any over or under payment has been made. If there is a Widow/er, Sussex Police Pensions will send the previous listed information including details of any pension that is payable.

Sussex Police Pensions can be contacted by either telephoning 01243 642148 or emailing them at HRCustomerServicesTeam@westsussex.gov.uk.

Spouses Pensions for Life

NARPO nationally has been supporting a campaign seeking to achieve Police Spouse Pensions for Life, initially started by a NARPO widow member Kate Hall.

Kate launched a petition on this topic last year and the petition attracted over 70,000 signatures. You still have the opportunity to sign that petition through a link on narpo.org.uk website. NARPO nationally now wish to enlist your support in drawing more attention to the campaign directly with the recently elected members of Parliament.

Although the Government appear to have made some concessions towards Spouses in this matter, those concessions have not yet been consolidated in law but in any case leave Police Widows and Widowers in England, Wales and Scotland at a disadvantage when compared with Widows and Widowers of Police Officers from Northern Ireland, where the legislation has been changed to allow all Police Widows and Widowers to retain their pension entitlement following co-habitation or re-marriage.

NARPO nationally have drafted a letter on this topic with specific reference to the situation in Northern Ireland, which you may be happy to send to your local Member of Parliament to assist us in this campaign. Local Members of Parliament may also be interested in specific cases of how the current restriction on co-habitation and re-marriage affects our members who are their own constituents.-

The draft letter can be down loaded from narpo.org.uk I understand that there will be reference to this in the next NARPO News.

Christmas Lunch Friday 27 November 2015

A reminder, and a date for your diary, that the Christmas Lunch will held on Friday 27 November 2015 at the Hydro Hotel, Eastbourne. An excellent venue. Caroline Place, who has taken over responsibility for arranging our lunches has negotiated a slightly more varied menu choice. There will be three choices of starter and four of each for the main and sweet courses. Full details will be circulated in the Autumn Newsletter.

Edinburg Woollens Fashion Show 6 October 2015

The Social Committee have arrangements in hand for Edinburgh Woollens to hold a fashion show for our Members and Guests in the ballroom at the Fishermens Club on the evening of Tuesday 6 October 2015. (NB. I will include full details and confirmation of this event in the next Newsletter which will hopefully be circulated on the 1 October. Unfortunately, this may be too late for our members who receive the Newsletter by post. If this relates to you please let me or Ray Woolston know and we will endeavour to telephone you as soon as the details are known.)

The photographs will be displayed at the Half Yearly General Meeting on Tuesday 22 September 2015 when the winners will be presented with their prizes. Good luck.

Audiences for TV Recordings

Would you like to watch a recording of an ITV programme free? If so, you can book up to 6 free tickets for the same show by going to www.sroaudiences.com and selecting the programme you would like to watch. Many are recorded in London. The company, SRO Audiences (SRO stands for 'Standing Room Only') are responsible for issuing tickets on behalf of ITV. Tickets for popular programmes are snatched up fast.

Last Sunday, 28 June, Sue and myself watched the rehearsal and recording of "It's a Funny Old Week" which went out on the next day. The rehearsal and recording were hilarious. I would liken both to a visit to a Comedy Club without the continuous use of offensive language. Much of the material was cut before it reached our screens. The rehearsal lasted about 1½ hours and the recording almost 2 hour. The cost for the day amounted to a £25 rail fare plus a pub lunch. Combining it with a day out in London it was excellent value. The down side was the hour wait to get into the theatre. There is no cover outside from inclement weather. Try it.

Fred Olsen Cruise Lines partnership with NARPO

This company are now offering NARPO members discounts on all cruises over and above other discounts on offer (there are a few exceptions). You can find out more about Cruises on offer by signing up to Fred Olsen Cruise Lines at <http://www.fredolsencruises.com/> There is currently a 'free cruise' prize for one lucky winner signing up to this website.

Channel 4 show 'First Dates'

A message from Paul Braund at Channel 4 - "We are currently looking for single people to apply and we are particularly looking for retired individuals who may be interested in being set up on a date. Our last series was more successful than ever before at finding successful matches. The show is open to people of all ages. You are never too old to find that ideal companion. We are keen to find matches for those in every stage of their life. We would be so grateful if there was an opportunity to circulate this information amongst your members.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me quoting NARPO on 02074277705 or email paul.braund@twentytwenty.tv You can apply for the series using the link www.firstdatescasting.co.uk"

The Great Train Robbery of 1963

The following message was received from a Jim Morris who is writing a second book on the Great Train Robbery.

"I wonder if you can help me. I'm currently writing my (second) book on the 1963 Great Train Robbery. In talking to one of the robbers a few years back, after they left the gangs headquarters at Leatherslade Farm and stopping off at a bent solicitors clerk in Berkshire, a few of them went to Pevensy to book into a bed and breakfast. They were in a Ford car - these cars you could open with a paperclip and not damage the paperclip. However they stayed somewhere where either a police officer was 'in digs' or was related to the landlady. They had a bit of a sleepless night as you can imagine. Any of you chaps have any memory of this?"

If you have any knowledge of these lodgings (50 years ago!) and want to admit to it (?) please contact Jim Morris at jim.morris@yahoo.co.uk

Sussex Police Charitable Trust

(Open to serving and retired Sussex Police only)

An extract from the Sussex Police Charitable Trust Newsletter – “Last year 557 members sought the help of the SPC. Over half of these were provided with help in the form of advice, guidance and signposting* alone, with remainder also receiving help in the form of a grant or interest free loan. Over £52,000 was awarded to members in the form of grants. A further 12 members were made interest free loan totalling over £12,000. 38 members and their families were provided with a recuperative break in our bungalow in Dorset.

If you or a colleague, need assistance with recuperation, illness, disability, convalescence, financial hardship or a myriad of other things, please remember the Trust. We are here to help. It is what we do and the only thing we do.

Contact us on ext 540703 or via our web-site at www.sussexpolicecharitabletrust.org For those yet to be with us, membership is just £2.50 a month, deducted directly from pay.

By joining, you will be helping your colleagues, however, you may well end up helping yourself.”

* signposting – Don’t worry if you had no idea what this meant as I had to ask! In layman’s language it means that members were put in contact with the relevant organisations for help with a particular problem.

How to find this Newsletter on the Internet

This Newsletter can be found on the Sussex Police Federation website by logging on to www.sussexpolfed.org/ and selecting the heading ‘Retired Officers’ and ‘Eastbourne and District Branch’. Other Sussex Branches also publish their Newsletters on this website.

And now a little corny humour....

A man left work one Friday afternoon and instead of going home went for a drink with the boys staying out all night which led to a whole weekend blowing his wages on booze and gambling. When he finally got home on Sunday night, he was confronted by his very angry wife. After two hours, she stopped nagging and said: “How would you like it if you didn't see me for two or three days?” He gave his response very little thought and replied: “That would be fine with me.”

Monday went by and he didn't see his wife. Tuesday and Wednesday came and went with the same results. Thursday, the swelling went down just enough for him to see a little of her out of the corner of his left eye.

And one even cornier than that one....

I stopped at a friend's house the other day and found him stalking around with a fly-swatter. When I asked if he was getting any flies, he answered: “Yeah, three males and two females.” Curious, I asked how he could tell the difference. He said: “Three were on a beer can and two were on the phone.”

And finally...

Please do not hesitate to contact me on any NARPO matters. If I cannot help, I'm sure I will know someone who can – it's called "signposting" (?). I hope to meet more of you at our meetings and social gatherings.

Enjoy the Summer,

My Kind regards,

Bob Diplock
